

I think that Indiana's Telephone Privacy law is fine the way it is, please don't change the law. It has been tremendously effective for my family by reducing the amount of telemarketing calls we receive.